

how to get here....

by Air

The Gold Coast has its own domestic airport at Coolangatta, just 20 minutes south of the Gold Coast Convention and Exhibition Centre with regular flights from all capital cities. Services are provided domestically by two airlines, Virgin Blue and Qantas, and internationally through Freedom and Australian Airlines. The closest international airport is in Brisbane, just a one hour drive to Broadbeach.

by Train

Train services require a coach, shuttle or vehicle transfer. Interstate trains terminate in Brisbane at the Roma Street Transit Terminal 60 minutes north of Surfers Paradise. Trains traveling from Sydney terminate in Mullwillumbah 30 minutes south of Surfers Paradise. The City Train runs regularly from Brisbane with stops at Coomera, Helensvale, Nerang and Robina.

by car

Southbound from Brisbane (78km), take the Broadbeach Motorway Exit and follow the directions to Broadbeach. Just after the Pacific Fair Shopping Centre turn left at the next set of lights. This will bring you out onto the Gold Coast Highway. The Gold Coast Convention and Exhibition Centre is situated on the corner of the next street, just after Jupiters Casino. On entering the Convention Centre grounds you will find two levels of complimentary car parks, situated under the Centre. The Gold Coast is 900km north of Sydney and is accessible by either the Pacific Highway or the inland New England Highway. There are a wide range of coach/bus transfers, taxi and hire car services available from the airports. Stretch and sedan limousines are also an affordable option.
